ASIA PACIFIC LITERARY FESTIVAL

The ALF partnered with APWT to host a three-day literary festival, Asia Pacific Literary Festival (APLF), that brought together speakers from 16 countries to make Alliance School of Liberal Arts as an international hub of art and culture.

The festival was an intense hive of activities such as Workshops and side-discussions on Calligraphy, Non-fiction creative writing, Storytelling; Music Festival; Comedy Night to name a few. The campus transformed into a festive forest of delights with art installations, bookshelves, diverse culinary carts, and handicraft and loom as a most agreeable place to spend any amount of creative and scholarly time.

The event was inaugurated by noted mythologist and author, Devdutt Pattanaik, who delivered a keynote on "Is there an Indian approach to Management?" The festival, over three days had talks and keynotes by authors, journalists and activists including Victor Mallet, Irom Sharmila, Tom Doig and Rochelle Almeida as well as panels by APWT chairs Sally Breen, Helder Beja and International Booker Prize winner Geetanjali Shree.

DEV DUTT PATTANAİK

Alliance has multiple schools like liberal arts and business. These are different perspectives, indeed different truths. This spirit of accommodating multiple truths is essential to Indian thought.

- Devdutt Pattanaik

VICTOR MALLET

"Thank you for a wonderful event" - Victor Mallet

MIHIR VATSA

"Thank you for a good time at the festival! May we continue to dwell in poetry and "out of frame" spaces" - Mihir Vatsa

ROCHELLE ALMEIDA

"What a brilliant experience it is turning out to be... giving the keynote address was an honor and a privilege. Meeting renowned fellow-writers and translators in the being on the cake! I wish organizers many years of future literary interactions and much global success." - Rochelle Almeida

SALLY BREEN

"What a tremendously, overwhelming and rare experience was this festival of book, ideas, life & literature at Alliance University with APWT. Memories that are alive and live. Students that are hungry to listen & learn. Faculty that is as young as the youngest students. Trees of Bangalore. Museum of Trees." - Sally Breen

TOM DOIG

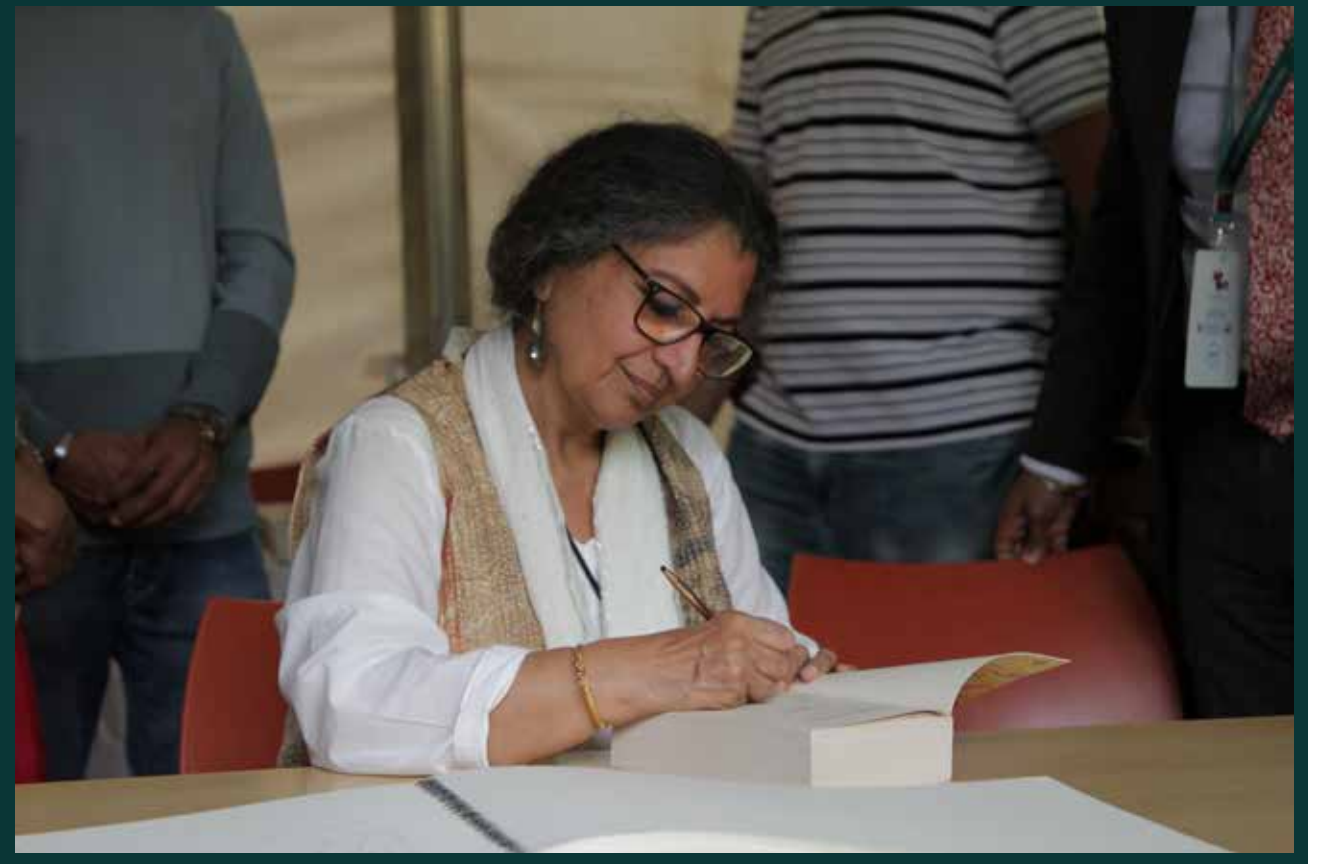

"I have never been on stage in front of a crowd like that before, that was huge for me, and so gratifying. One of the Alliance Liberal Arts students told me that I took him on a journey around the whole world in an hour, which is what I was hoping to do, but I wasn't at all sure that it would work. Achcha! Bahut Achcha." - Tom Doig

GEETANJALI SHREE

“इस तपोवन में आप सब खूबसूरत होते जायें, भीतर से भी बहर से भी....”
